The EUSAIR community, through its governance and stakeholders, sets the tone on many important political files in the Adriatic-Ionian region. It shall therefore take the lead to make Europe climate-neutral by 2050 a reality.

The project in question foresees the consultation of the key implementers and main stakeholders EUSAIR of the 9 countries. It will analyse the way events were organised during the pre-covid period and it will develop monitoring systems and guidelines to organise sustainable events once the sanitary emergency will be over.

AIC Forum is the coordinator of the project and cooperates for its implementation with the T33 agency and with the University of Padua.

CREATIVE@HUBS:
Holistic networking of creative industries via hubs

Project co-funded by European Union, European Regional Development Funds (E.R.D.F.) and by National Funds of Greece and Italy

The project aims at supporting the integration of creative issues at governance level, to help creative entrepreneurs and resources in the field of innovative industries, by promoting innovation through existing local systems (clusters, laboratories, universities, science parks).

Thanks to this project, 6 buildings will be renovated in Creative Hubs: 4 Hubs in Greece, in the town of Agrinio, in the neoclassical building in Messolonghi in the Agricultural School of Patras and in Pyrgos, while in Italy the pavillon 115 of Fiera del Levante and a Pavillon of Foggia Fair will be renovated.

The Chamber of Commerce of Aetoloakarnania participates in the project and European Tourism Going Green 2030

The Pordenone-Udine Chamber of Commerce is part of the ETGG2030 Consortium with the aim to share and transfer innovative best practice between EU countries (Italy, Germany, Austria, Croatia, Romania, Bulgaria), supporting organisations in implementing sustainability and in achieving third party certification as a ticket to enter the world's largest independent sustainable & responsible tourism market place: Travel Green Europe!

A great opportunity for tourism SMEs involved in ETGG2030 project (financed by COSME Programme) initiated for boosting Sustainable Tourism Certification.
